PABBATH AND SUNDAY.

The "American Sabbath Union" wants a inwenneted to enforce abstention from la-bor, on Sunday. Though the Union itself professes to observe the day as a religious day, in compliance with the command of the Almighty, as given through Moses, it misbes the state to command its observance as, "a rest day," solely as a measure of secu-lar policy, for the physical and moral wellmmand its observance bring of the body of the people. Observed in this way, however, Sunday will not be a secret day. It will merely be a holiday, and this, in fact, with very great numbers is its that men work too as almously and meri-fore that a weekly rest day should be or-dained by law, may seem to superficial ob-servation quite another thing; but in fact it has its origin in a desire to cause the state to support the church in the claim that non-Rey. Withor F. Crafts, in his rermons on the subject, says: "The right arm of the Union's work is to promote the religious Babbath, the left arm is to preserve the civil-Babbath. The religious Sabbath treats Sun-gay work and dissipation as sins against God, the civil Sabbath considers them only ing people had ene day's rest in a week, or no. Very probably they would even export us against the sin of idleness, when we proand these against man." This is not an inposed a rest day for ourselves. This is not to the second of t against God, and now there is an effort to beau free point through indirection, by mak-ing failure to keep Sunday as a day of rest a

Bub if the state is not to enforce observance of Sunday as a sucred day, it cannot possibly make non-observance of Sunday a It can appoint Sunday as a day of rest, a holiday after the manner of Prarsons, decided to take time to be his own executor, partially, at least, and in pursuit of this laudable intent gave $100,000 to Beloit college, a like sum to Linke Forest university, $50,000 each to the King college, the Presbyterian seminary, the Theological seminary and the Presbyterian college of Caicago, and various other bequests aggregating $800,000. There appears to be a growing disposition in more of wealth to disother holidays; but if the day of weekly rest stunds on this ground it may be observed or not, as persons may or may not wish to ob-serve it. We have now many holidays, but their observance is merely voluntary. state, unless it forms an alliance with the schurch to declare non-observance of Sunday sein against God, has no more ground for mand to nien to rest on the Sunday haliday than on the Christmas boliday; and Anisot, since the requirements of modern alife make it desirable, and even necessary, that many activities shall continue without Interruption of holidays or rest days, the people, or a majority of them, would not want the proposed Sunday law enforced. and hence it would not be enforced. A great many persons now rest on Sundays; sque rest on other days of the week as con-rendence or opportunity allows; and a great many of us would rest not only one day in ek, but seven days in the week, if could. Necessity, in one forth or another, drives most of us to work and keeps us at it. From this necessity the state never can refleve us. We rest when we can, and work

There can be no dispute over the historical origin either of the Jewish Sabbath or Christian Sunday. How far either is "su-ered" must be left to individual feeling, and this again depends on temperament, educa-tion, reading and thought. We know how the Jewish Sabbath originated; the book of Beuteronomy gives us a positive statement.
The people of Israel were commanded to "keep the Subbath day" in commemoration of the fact that God had delivered them rom servitude in the land of Egypt; and secount we have in the book of Genesis of the creation, written probably 500 years after the deliverance from Egypt, and after the Subbath had long been established among the Jews, states that God 'rested on the seventh day and sanctified it." The week was a very ancient division of times there is reason to believe that the Israelius derived it from Chalden during their so Egypt, and the Chaldeons, the carliest as mers, or astrologers, based it on the ing the sun and moon, and a day of the week was made sacred to each. During the after part of the period of their sojourn in Egypt the people of I-rael had been op ssed with grievous servitude. They had been lorced to work under task masters without rest or holiday, and when they recovered their liberties after the exodus, it es natural that they should seek and rewas intural that they should be a com-ceive a revelution authorizing and com-manding them to rest one day in seven. Moses presented, as from labyeb, the God of Israel, the command the people wanted, and the Sabbath was fixed in the constitution of the Jewish state. We make constiintions in a different manner now. had no constitutional conventions then; Moses went up to Sinai and brought the constitution back. Attested by lightning and thunder, that deeply impressed a people shelly unaccustomed to such phenomena, the constitution was received and adopted, not as from the "Supreme Ruler of the Uniwerse." as the convention at Orympia puts it, First as from the local and tribal god of Iswho was for Israel all the time, rael, a god who was for Israel all the time, and against everybody else.

The Christian world has changed the red day, the day of rest, from buturday to Sunday. For this change there is not even the semblance of divine authority that appears in the sanction of the Jowell Subbath. Nowhere in the New Testament is bath. Nowhere in the New Testament is the substitution of Sunday for Saturday as "the Sabbath" authorized or enjoined. The first day of the week or Sunday, is mentioned only eight times in the New Testament, and in none of the texts is there the least hint that the day was sacred, or was thereafter to be so considered. In one place in the New Testament mention is made of a religious meeting held on the first day of the week, and there is no doubt that during the early years of Christianity these meetings became frequent. Jesus was believed to have risen on that day, and the meetings were held chiefly in commemoration of the resurrection. But throughout the New Testament the seventh day of the week is uniformly called the Subbath, and there is no command for the observance of the first day of the week as a boly or sucred day.

The authority for such observance rests partly on a usage of the early church, but chiefly on a decree of the Emperor Constantine who, in the year 321, when that muon was made between church and state which the world has ever since been trying to sever, ordained the union of the worship of Christ with the worship of Apollo, and commanded wrest on the wenerable day of the sun."

Bun worship, symbolized by the worship of Apollo as the god of the sun, was commen throughout the Roman empire. The men throughout the Roman empire. The first day of the week, or Sunday, was the day devoted to this heathen worship. This form of idelatry was almost universal throughout the ancient world. In Gibbon's History, chapter 20 we read: "The devotion of Constantine was peculiarly directed to the genius of the sun, the Apollo of Greek and Roman mythology; and he was pleased to be represented by the symbols of the god of light and poetry. The unerring stafts of that deity, the brightness of his eyes, his that deity, the brightness of his eyes, his lancel wreath, immortal beauty and elegant accomplishments, seemed to point thus our as the patron of a young hero. The alters of Apollo were covered with the votice offerof Apollo were covered with the creditions ings of Constantine; and the creditions multitude were taught to believe that the emperor was permitted to behold with mortal eyes the visible majesty of their tutelar deity; and that, either waking or in a vision, he was blessed with the auspicious omens of a long and virtuous reign. The sun was universally accepted as the invinci-ble guide and protector of Constantine."

The emperor, therefore, commanded the observance of the day devoted to the worship observance of the day devoted to the worship of the sun, not as the Sabbath, which it was not, but under its old astronomical and heathen title, Dies Solis, or the day of the ann, which it was. It was a piece of statement, which it was. It was a piece of statement, which it was a means of notting the worship of Christ with the worship of basis of title. Those opposed to placing Apolfo, and Constantine stamped on his the substitution of the words above given, and the others acquiesced, well-pleased with the high sounding phrase. The result was happily attained without a rehearsal of the coins the name of one and the image of the other. The idea was to create harmony in the empire by making it appear that u.e. ligions differed little from each other, and we may be able to get a juster estimate of the assertion that it is a sin against thou to

SOMETHING SHOULD BE DONE.

Very little has ever been done in Oregon to make the state known or its resources unmake themselves known to the world to boster ner claims, on the baras of a per sonal interest that is of paramount im-portance. California has constantly grown in ability to make exhibits and her people possess the enterprise and display liberality that has never been equaled in the history and impressed those in attendar or from all parts of the United States with the wonder parts of the United States with the wonder ful and varied products of the Picific In 1888 the Grand Army met at Columbus Olmo, and the train from C I form a passed through Geogram Besides a great attendance that under the resolution was at least a least a part of the Picific Inc. of ex-soldiers there were at least a lozen cars loaded with the fruits and products of that state. The present year the annual encamp-ment will be held at Milwaukee, Wis and the state of Cahiorma will be represented in ut such views

It is the integroun to lord three cars, and

It is the inted ion to load three cars, and the Northern Pacific will be good to furn hall the thansportation necessary. We have fruits in abundance in August and September and can load two cars with them to be used for grainition distribution. There will be a splendid showing of Oregon grains, and other agricultural modulities.

of competent men to procure what is wanted There are dealers abo car gather the prod other way. It Portland will do in proportion as well as other towns have done there will be means abundant and Portland is ting that will give some idea of the native re sources of Oregon A large cibinet of min erals can be precured from B ker cit. there will no doubt be other minerals from other parts of our state and this frathteran be wery attractive. An assorting a of woods should be made of coaland from both in one and in bars. The various manufactures of our state can be shown to advantage. As he work proceeds it will be easy to add to the collection. The goods from our woolen mills can be shown to give them an idea of obtain. Among these are reckoned statistics of agriculture, the accurate compilation of which is difficult from the fact that farmers as a class, do not keep a record of their business. Difficulty is met in collecting industrial statistics in many instances, not from the same cruse, but from an averse ness of manulacturers to exhibit their books. That portion of the law which makes it mandatory upon the superintendent of the census to collect statistics of indebtedness however is the part that is likely to prove most puzzing to that officer. The difficulties that he in the way of reliable compilation in this department are so great obtain. Arrong these are reckoned statis compliation in this department are so great that the superintendent doubts his ability to secure therein satisfactory results He has sent men to several localities to experiment upon methods which are considered best eal upon methods which are considered test take a small district and work it with this view and in case they are unable to report an effective plan the superintendent will ask a repeal of that portion of the law properly considering that incomplete returns of this pharecter will be mysleading and worse than character will be misleading and worse than

The work when completed will not be perfect. No one hopes for that but it is evident that the most earnest effort and tireless industry will combine with business capacity to make it as thorough, complete, and above di as re'table na possible.

The traindisaster at Albany Sunday night, by which a competent and futhful engineer lost his life provise to have been the work of one or more half drauken voung men, who, wholly regardless of consequences, opened the switch just before the express was due. that justice, so far as the principle that exacts a life for a life can compass this end, will be meted out to these cowardly criminals, saves them from the summary vengeance of the murdered engineer a late associates of the murdered engineer a late associates. The childrsh pica of one of the three men under arrest for this crime that he unavalingly attempted to dissuade the others from opening the watch is insufficient to cleame his hands of the blood that followed the deed since he walked off uncencerriedly, knowing that the walker was once and that a passenger train switch was open and that a passenger train was shortly due. Trial conviction and punishment should follow such a deed as this with a promptness and severity that would make even half drunken rowdles hesitate before amu ing themselves by tampering with a railway track again in this state

An estimate of the population of Oregon by Hon E B McElroy recently pub-lished seems to us very erroneous There are now in the state 93 998 children of school are now in the state 93 093 children of school age. Mr. McElroy estimates the school children as one in five of the outre population which would give a total of 405 000 inhabitants in the state. But this estimate is much too high. In 1855 the number of school children was 80,018 yet the population as shown by the census was a little less than 150 000. It must be admitted, however, that the census was imperfectly taken that year, and it we did 2014 by the best of all which census. yet it we dd 30.000 to the tot i which cer-tainly would be ample we would have but 280.000 total population to 80.000 childr nof school are. The would be at the rate of three and a half to one which certainly is large enough. On this basis the pro-ent joind ition of Oregon would be

TO THE VECTOR OF THE OREOGRAM

In your bunday lasne of July 20, someone writing over the name of John Dillard has under taken to review the above case. That Dillard himself did not write the article is manifest to all who know him but if he affixed his name to its statements he is as much responsible for their accuracy as though his hand had penned the words in whose language they are clothed. The whole article is such a porvession of the truth wherever it undertaken to assert a fact, that it can only seem aband to those conversant with the history of the onse, but as it has reached other eyes, and is so grossly and viciously libelous of the rourt, some notice, to which it would not otherwise be entitled should be given it. That a reply might be accurately based upon the record of the cause. I have had prepared by the stene grapher who reported the case, Mr. C. If shokes a full transcript of the tharge given the 11 ry. Mr. Sholes has been engaged for some weeks in reporting the propeedings of the Idaho consiliutional convention, which has delayed the procurement of this transcript and prevented he preparation of one of the entite record, which I would much like to have.

Governor Pennoyer Will Not Interfere to Save the Murderer's Neck.

He Bays He Can Not See His Way Clear To Do Anything for the Condemned Man-A Potition for Clemency.

Governor Pennoyer has made up his mind not to interfere with the course of the law in the case of Chee Gong who is under sentence to be exe gued next briday for the murder of Lee Tick in she Chinese theater on the night of November I 1837, and the condemned man will puy the extreme penalty for his crime.

The governor was sitting on the porch of his residence reading a petition for elemency when an Onroovian reporter, accompanied by District Attorney McGinn coiled last ovening The call ers were invited to be seated, and than his excel lency trave de his glasses and laid the voluminous document aside Turning to the district attorney he said very seriously "Well, I declare, but I really think I have no right to interfere, and the district attorney he said very seriously "Well, I declare, but I really think I have no right to interfere, and the district attorney with a smile but in this case I do not think about it? "The law undoubtedly invests you with the power to interfere, and the district attorney with a smile but in this case I do not think it would be proper "I cannot see for the life of me why I should interfere resumed the governor 'Chee Gong has had two trials and has been convicted each time, and there was no undue excitement in the public mind when he was tried

District attorney McGinn then briefly reviewed the murder case. He laid especial stress upon a dotter which had been found upon one of the murderers of Lee Yick when arrested. It was from the nighbinders, and conveyed the information of Lee Yick a death to Chee Gong, Chung Ling and Roug Long Disk, and warned them not to weeken. This letter was a ritten in C vives and had been admitted to a number of promi mont Chinges, all of whom agreed that the m.n. and the user automated a greed that the min to whom it was addressed wer, the ones under arrest for the murder of the boy THE SUPREME COURT 8 MISTARE

THE SUPREME COURT'S MISTARE

'I don't know continued the governor' but I declare the supreme court made a mis ake in mandamusing Judge Stearna, contrary to law, compelling hia to kip a bill of exceptions after the second trial of the men. I think that if the law had been enforced in the case of these men the Chinese vendetta of lost winter would not have occurred. The Chinese must be rade to understand that the laws of the land are seperior to the laws of the highbinders.

'Have you determined not to interfere? asked the reporter.

the reporter.

'There already said that I do not see what would justify me in interfering with the course of the law I I the verdict had been rendered while there was a high state of excitement or If new testimony, had been adduced subsequent to the conviction there would have been ground for me to act. I cannot see my way clear under the circumstance.

Outrive Pennover then showed the reporter the puttion for themsency which he had received Accompanying it was a transcript of the avidence adducted at the trail Beside the names the contained dovernor Pennoyer received letters from Hon, Henry Failing and United States district attoring L L Marthur The latter assigned no reas a for this request. Mr Failing set for that there was strong doubt of thee Goog a guilt. THE IFREGULARITIES OF JUSTICE

The principal argument of the petitioners was the irregularity of justice in this murder case Three men were equally guilty before the law is in the perituritary while thee Gong is swatting execution; the state, the petition reads "Execution restriction to be refeited to the state," the petition reads "Execution to the restrict of the state, the petition reads "Execution that the state alleged eximitate should be placed, as far as may be possible, upon an equal footing "Three is nothing to show that the crime was not the result of a hasty and uppremeditated quarrel while on the other hand there is every thong tending to prove exactly what it wa—a homic de in hot blood. It is a case of Chrises versus (5) in set. There is strong testimony for Checked up going to show that he was not in the theater when his murder occurred and that he was indicted as the result of a conspiracy having for itself me ver La foy a former propeletor of the Chin set thater, ind thee Gong's former en-

OYAL BAKING TOSER SLE ABSOLUTELY PURE.

For quick raising, the Royal Baking Powder is superior to all other leavening agents. It is absolutely pure and wholesome and of the highest leavening power 12 is always uniform in strength and quality and never falls to make light, sweet, most palatable and nutritive food Bread, biscuits, muffins, care, etc., raised with Royal Baking Powder may be eaten hot without distressing results to the most delicate digestive organs. It will keep in any climate without deterioration

Prof H A Mott, U. S. Government Chemist, after examining officially the principal baking powders of the country, reported

"The Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure, for I have so found it in many tests made both for that company and the United States Government.

"Because of the facilities that company have for obtaining perfectly pure cream of tartar, and for other reasons dependent upon the proper proportions of the same, and the method of its preparation, the Royal Baking Powder is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder offered to the public
